Ian T Muir

Ian is a well known and much respected musician. He is a senior tutor at the prestigious Royal Conservatoire of Scotland. His band "Ian Muir Scottish Dance Band" have played all over the world, and Ian is a regular visitor to Somerset. Ian and his band have also played many times at the RSCDS Summer and Winter Schools. Musicians attending can be assured of a great day with him, and will benefit from his extensive experience.

Duncan Brown

Duncan began dancing as a child and was taught by his parents in York from whom he gained his love of Scottish dancing. He qualified as a teacher 1997 and has taught extensively at day and weekend schools across England and Europe, including the RSCDS Summer and Winter Schools as well as Spring Flings in Cambridge and Bonn.. Duncan also enjoys devising new dances and has been fortunate enough to have 4 published by the RSCDS.

RodgerMcAndrew

Rodger has played piano since the age of 5 – which he says is a “long time ago”. He plays for weekly classes at the Edinburgh Branch of the RSCDS and annually at Summer School in St Andrews. He also plays accordion in the Portobello Ceilidh Band. As well as traditional music he also likes playing classical and jazz.

We look forward to welcoming Ian, Duncan and Rodger to our Day School in 2018. Great teaching and wonderful music, what more can we ask for!
